

Answers

Hidden Dangers

Word Games

Think You Know

Electricity wires and telephone wires can look the same. True You have to touch electricity to be injured or killed. False It's not the volts, but the current that kills. True Electricity travels at 186,000 miles per second. True Electricity jumps gaps. True Electricity can stop (and start) your heart. True We can see electricity moving around. False

LooK UP LOok Out

STAY OUT

1. How does electricity travel to our homes?

2. What should you look out for when fishing?

3. What should you do if you lose something in a substation?

Answer: a) and b)
Answer: a) and d)
Answer: b)

Which of the below is the correct colour?

